

Training Course in Sexual and Reproductive Health Research

Geneva, February 2009

Adolescents Sexual and Reproductive Health

Department of Child and Adolescent Health and Development

CAH

Overview of the ADH sessions

Today 19 Feb 2009

- Introduction to adolescent health (Paul)
- Why adolescent sexual and reproductive health is a public health issue (Vicky)
- Health Services for Adolescents (Paul & Vicky)

Tomorrow 20 Feb 2009

- Using a standards driven approach to scaling up quality services for adolescents (Chandra)
- Measuring quality of health services for young people (Susanne)
- Measuring coverage of health services for young people (Krishna)
- Importance of improving data collection & analysis (Garrett)

Adolescence: definitions

- WHO : Adolescents 10-19 years of age
- UN: Youth 15-24 years of age
- WHO: Young people 10-24 years

Remembering my adolescence..

One key experience
of your own adolescence
that remains alive in your memory

Health Services for Adolescents

- In your country, what are key barriers for
  - providing services to young people ?
  - that prevent adolescents from using services they need?

Adolescent Friendly Health Services

- Characteristics of adolescent friendly health services

(page 27)

